The Morris Park meeting promises to be a firstclass one in every way, and a fitting wind-up to probably the best racing season ever experienced in this country.

Low Prices Prevail.

Horsemen generally are much surprised at the low prices brought by the McLewee horses yesterday. Gold Heeis and Major Daingerfield were admittedly the two best performers of the year, and It was predicted that they would bring almost record prices. Instead, it was hard to get a first bid on Gold Heels, He was finally started at $1,000 and by hard work the auctioneer raised the bid to $6,500, at which price he was sold. The boards upon which the as assin breathed his last were removed at the time, and for years small pieces were sold to sight-seets. The largest one (size 6x13% inches) ever taken from the premises can be seen at our offices. It is well worth examin-

OWNED BY GEN. WASHINGTON.

The house once owned by the Father of his Country and later known as the Kenmore Hotel, made more famous by the Ayers-Benine tragedy, is opposite our plant. The fire-escape down which the accused woman descended, the window she afterwards entered to escape detection and the location of Ayers' room can be seen from the struct.

A NOVEL ATTRACTION. The largest and smallest steel safes in the world are in use at our offices. Ask those who have examined them, and they will tell you that the sight is one worth seeing. The "Baby" Safe weighs 180 pounds. The "Jumbo" Safe, five tons.

Will Give Away 50.000 Boxes of Medicine. DR.
